

Rowan University International Baccalaureate Program IB Scholarship Program and Course Equivalency Guide

Rowan University recognizes the International Baccalaureate (IB) as a rigorous and challenging program and will offer credit after the student is enrolled in an undergraduate degree program at Rowan University. Rowan University offers students who complete the IB Diploma Program an opportunity to qualify for up to $32,000 in scholarships.

Please, see below for the scholarships you could be eligible for with your IB score and IB course equivalency guide.

International Baccalaureate Scholarship Program

1. The IB Tuition Scholarship is offered to high school graduates with an IB Diploma and earn a minimum of 24 IB credits.
2. Award Amount: $3,000 a year for a minimum of 24 grade points. $5,000 a year for a minimum of 30 grade points. $8,000 a year for a minimum of 36 grade points.
3. Award offers are based on rigorous high school IB curriculum and completion of an IB Diploma.
4. This scholarship is available for four consecutive years (eight semesters total) for fall and spring semesters only, based on academic year renewal requirements.
5. A completed Rowan Undergraduate Application serves as the application for this scholarship.
6. Who can apply: High school graduates attending college for the first time immediately after high school graduation.
7. Students must maintain a GPA of 3.0 in order to receive the scholarship for the next academic year.
8. This award can be combined with other merit tuition scholarship. The combination between the total offered merit award and this award cannot exceed 100% of the amount of Undergraduate base tuition.
